This Week's News

Thank you to everyone who came to the Autumn Fair on Wednesday this week. It was a huge success, with happy (and painted!) faces, full tummies bouncy castle excitement. It was lovely to see our school community enjoying the event. If you want to help our school community, perhaps you'd like to be a parent governor? Look out next week for more information!

Word of the week

INSPIRATION

Inspiration a person or thing that fills you with ideas or enthusiasm. As we celebrate Black History Month, we are thinking about black people who have been an inspiration in some way, including some black authors: Next week, we are going to share a Ten Word Tiny Tale by Joseph Coelho with the children in assemblies to provide some inspiration for some free writing – they will be able to write about whatever comes to their minds after hearing the story. We are looking forward to seeing what they are inspired to write.

Marcus Rashford's campaign work inspires us to help others.

Tips to help keep your child safe on WhatsApp

Get to know privacy settings

There are four main settings that you can use to help your child control who can see their information:

1. Everyone – allows all users to see your profile photo, about or status.
2. My contacts – only allows people from your phone contacts to see your profile photo, about, status, last seen and online.
3. My contacts except... – allows you to exclude certain people in your phone contacts from seeing your information.
4. Nobody – doesn't allow anyone to see your information.

The default setting on WhatsApp is 'everyone' but you can help your child to set their privacy controls by clicking the 'settings' cog and selecting 'privacy'. Here you can select each type of information and change it to the setting that you want.

To prevent children being added to groups by people they don't know, we recommend changing the group settings to 'My contacts except' and using the tick icon to select all contacts. This option means only your child's phone contacts, except those you exclude, can add your child to groups. But by selecting all contacts, it means that nobody can add your child to a group chat without first sending them an invitation.

In the same section, you can also switch off 'read receipts', which means other people cannot see when you have read their message. This might help if your child is feeling under pressure to respond to messages.
