This Week's News

We have marked anti-bullying this week with our assemblies and some activities in class. Year 4 were lucky enough to go to Withington Library, where they enjoyed a crafting session with an anti-bullying theme. Withington Library is a wonderful warm and friendly space, with books, films and audiobooks to borrow and all sorts of free activities. Pay it a visit!

It's road safety week next week. Now that the evenings are darker, please ensure that you collect children from any after school clubs, even if they usually walk home from school unaccompanied. It's a good time to ensure that your children are visible to car drivers as they walk on the pavement – bright coats, reflective bands and badges can all help. And it's not just the evenings that are dark – it's harder for us to rouse ourselves in the darker mornings but be on time – twenty to nine!

Word of the Week

rouse

Meaning

If someone rouses you when you are sleeping, they wake you up.

Challenge

If you were going to rouse a family member early one day, what would you do?

Young Carers Big Night Out

What a wonderful night out for our young carers. Our celebrity winner missed the group photo as he was off being interviewed and photographed for his winning entry that is now illuminated for all of Manchester to see by the Cathedral.

Well done to everyone! It's starting to feel a bit like Christmas

Book of The Week
The Young Bond series by Charlie Higson

Among the bumper load of books that arrived in school last week and have been processed by our amazing Head Librarian in Y6 are the Young Bond series by Charlie Higson. These are really exciting adventure books for older readers – Y5 and Y6 will love the fast pace and descriptive vocabulary. Watch out for these books in the library and KS2 Reading Shed.

We have so much fun at Stay and Play every Wednesday.

Many thanks to all who come along and to Mrs Walsh for all your support setting it all up.
